| | | | | Barney? June Mandy Jenny + a handwritten poem about GALMARA We asked Mother how far to go, But she said she did not know. The same question we asked of Papa, And he said it was rather far. It was nearly too much to bear, But at last we were nearly there. We started down the narrow track, With no chance of turning back. Our excitement wasn't amiss, Happiness is always at a place like this. With fishing in the creek, Or even fixing a boat leak. And all the little birds to see, This is how we like it to be. At Galmara | |
